THE People's FLAG

per copy

The Irish Independent, in partnership with the Thomas F Meagher Foundation will once again publish The People's Flag, this March 12th.

We are delighted this supplement will include lesson plans compiled by the History Teachers Association which can be used in your class as teaching resources. The Thomas F. Meagher foundation is a Gaisce - The President's Award Challenge Partner. Please see www.tfmfoundation.ie for details of how you can align your Flag day activities with your Bronze, Silver or Gold Award challenges.

First flown by Thomas Francis Meagher in Waterford in 1848, the flag is an iconic symbol that generates worldwide respect.

On March 12th, this special supplement will celebrate the work of the Foundation and its mission to educate people about the flag and the legacy of the man behind it, of its symbolism and meaning for peace. In a modern and diverse Ireland, it is critical that people of all backgrounds and creeds understand and gather around the meaning of the Irish flag for peace, respect, diversity and inclusion. This year on the eve of St. Patrick's Day 16th March, a socially distant Flag Day 2021 will take place, giving schools the opportunity to celebrate active citizenship and inclusivity in their school by raising the Irish flag and recognising the flags of all nationalities in their communities. The raising of the flag particularly in 2021 symbolises a "coming together" to create a community of hope for Ireland's future.

For just €1.00 per copy, delivered to your school with the Irish Independent, your school can avail of this special magazine combining the history of the Irish Flag, what it means today and how it will continue to be important in the future.
